

SETTI D. WARREN, MAYOR

NEWTONVILLE Village Day Sunday, Sept. 29

8:30am-Noon: Bullough's Pond Fair

Dexter Road & Bullough's Park

Guided birdwatching, fly fishing, en plein air painting lesson, model yacht regatta, arts & crafts for kids, sponsored fundraising kayak race, costumed actor, music, art show. Sponsored by Bullough's Pond Association www.bulloughspond.org

Noon-5pm: Jazz Festival & Craft Fair

Walnut Street between Washington Street & Washington Park

70 Craft & Information booths • Free kids' activities • StreetMURALS painting

ALSO: Norumbega Fraternity Lodge of Masons Open House 1-4pm, 460 Newtonville Ave
Tours, exotic animals and snacks.

New Art Center Open House 1-4pm, 61 Washington Park
Free exhibitions, art activities, tours of the building and faculty demonstrations!

Noon: Official Opening by Mayor Setti D. Warren

Walnut Street Sound Stage Schedule

Noon	Newton North Jazz Ensemble
1pm	Frank Wilkins and WeJazzUp
2pm	E.S.P. featuring Patrice Williamson
3pm	Cruzamente
4:20	In the House

Austin Street Stage Schedule

12:30	Creative Dance Steps
1:30	Joanne Langione
2:30	Suzuki School of Newton
3:40	All That Jazz
4pm	Ricordi D'Italia Folk Group

GOLD SPONSORS

SILVER SPONSORS

ROSENBERG, FREEDMAN & LEE LLP

NEWTON COMMUNITY PRIDE
SUSTAINING SPONSORS

Newton Cultural Center at City Hall Mayor's Office for Cultural Affairs

1000 Commonwealth Avenue
Newton, MA 02459
617-796-1540
Fax: 617-552-7089
LPlaout@newtonma.gov
JSmith@newtonma.gov
www.newtonculturalcenter.org www.newtoncommunitypride.org www.newtonma.gov

click on City Government. click on Cultural Affairs

Newtonville Residents - Exercise Your New Right to Vote!
For our First Neighborhood Area Council (NAC)
The NAC will work with the City to improve our village
Vote for up to nine representatives on Village Day, September 29, 12-5pm, Austin St. Bus Shelter, or Monday, September 30, 8:30am to 5pm, Newton City Hall or Tuesday, October 1, 8:30am to 8pm, Newton City Hall